INFORMATION

You are obliged to report the address of your accommodation if your stay in Hungary exceeds 30 days counted from the day of entry. Change in the address shall be reported within three working days following the occupation to the competent Regional Directorate in person or by representative.

Along with the reporting you have to submit:

- a) your travel document,
- b) your valid residence permit if you possess one,
- c) and the documents certifying the ownership of a flat or the right to use it.

The voucher certifying the report of the accommodation shall be kept in the travel document or together with the residence permit and shall be handed over to the competent authorities for inspection.
